

Job Description: Junior Medical Staff

Qualifications:

- Be at least 18 years of age
- Have basic first aid, CPR, and AED training or be EMT trained

Responsible to:

- Directly responsible to the Director of Ministries and/or Camp Nurse.
- Other camp leadership as need arises or as directed by the Director of Ministries.
- Able to assist campers in emergency (fire, injury, etc.); observe loading/unloading of buses; and possess strength and endurance required to maintain constant supervision of campers in any given area of the PRBC property.

Responsibilities:

- Assist the Camp Nurse in screening all campers as they arrive during registration.
- Educate camp staff about specific medical issues pertaining to the week's campers
- Provide care for any accidents, illnesses and special needs
- Able to assist campers in emergency (fire, injury, etc.); able to drive campers to the hospital if necessary.
- Treat minor cuts and bruises
- Keep accurate records
- Assist in the administration of prescribed medication to campers
- Maintain communication with the Camp Nurse or First Aid Station Manager
- Encourage campers in the Christian faith by conveying a welcoming attitude and joyful spirit.
- Understand that meeting the above responsibilities helps in preparing one's meeting place with God.

Responsibilities of PRBC:

- Ensure that the Medic has the appropriate training required to fulfill ACA standards.
- Ensure that the Medic has proper knowledge of the First Aid Station, theology, safety procedures, activities to be led, and general camp operations all according to ACA standards and the Staff Policy Handbook.
- Provide the first aid staff with the appropriate supplies needed for a successful summer.
- Provide a stipend, as agreed upon in the Summer Staff Agreement, as well as meals and housing.
- Evaluate job performance and provide encouragement.
- Supervise and assist the Medic in various activities and responsibilities.